

WPFC Travel Policy

- Teams flying to an event/tournament shall either fly with a parent(s) or with the team on a "team flight".
- The coach and manager shall fly on the "team flight". All players not traveling with a parent shall also fly on the "team flight" under the supervision of the coach and/or manager.
- Players with a parent(s) flying will have the option of flying with their parent(s).
- The parent(s) flight to the event/tournament shall be on the same day as the team's flight.
- The coach will announce the time that all players, even those traveling with their parent(s), must report to the hotel. Players traveling with the coach/manager will remain with the coach/manager.
- The return flight for players traveling with parent(s) must be scheduled after the last possible game of the event/tournament.

This policy does not change the Team Rooming policy and is not at the coach's discretion.
